Even with Kimes behind bars, fear of his venueause lingered on, and Sheriff Eldon Sitz hid the identity of the man who tipped police to Kimes' whereabouts.

police to Kimes' whereabouts.

The notorious killer and bank toblier, however, acted enly as a mild-mannered workman of 45. He surrendered pleasantly, readily admitted his identity and agreed to waive extradition.

He showed none of the resentment that earlier marked his career and once led to a shooting scrape in which an enemy was killed even while Kimes was supposed to be in prison.

Kimes, who had completed one term for murder and was serving out 50 years for bank robbery, walked away from the Oktahoma state prison 11 months ago when sent to feed dogs at the prison kennels.

hit town last Saturday, with Indians in head feathers playing the harmonica and a drummer named "Chief Wikinperiok" soiling snake oil to ture buildness." But as you'd imagine there were mighty few takers for the anaka oil Mont nonaible people, when they want medicinal aupplies, go to a licensed pharmaclat. Just as, when folks in our town want a mellow glass of heer or ate they're glad to be able to enjoy it in a licensed place like Andy's Garden Tavern. Recause under the biewers' program of "Self Regulation" Andy's place is spotless, wholssome, taw-abiding. From where I sit, the heat answer to the old-time "medicine man" is the modern, sanitary drugatore; funt an the best answer to the oldtime speakency is the modern, liconnect turns now which under Beit-Regulation" recognizes its responalbility to the community.
